Fellowship Square

2026 New Corporate Member Biographies

Wavery Brown, Self Employed

Wavery Brown is a seasoned professional and longtime Virginia resident with a strong background in corporate leadership and community service. She retired from Battelle in 2012 after a 25-year career, including leading the Washington, DC office, and now works as a self-employed real estate agent. She holds both a Bachelor's degree and MBA from Baldwin-Wallace University.

Ms. Brown has an extensive history of volunteerism and board leadership, including roles with United Way, Girl Scouts, and the Rotary Club of Lake Ridge, where she continues to serve in a leadership capacity. Through Rotary, she actively supports Fellowship House residents, earning the nickname "the Cake Lady" for her role in monthly celebrations. She is deeply committed to supporting seniors and strengthening her community through service and engagement.

Shelby Jenkins, American Psychological Association

Shelby is a native resident of Prince George's County. She attended Bowie State University for her undergraduate degree in Psychology and later graduated from Trinity University in Washington with a Master's degree in Community Counseling. She has spent the 15+ years at the American Psychological Association (APA).

Shelby finds true enjoyment in giving back or to help impact positive change to our society. As such, she invests in several organizations that she feels helps accomplish those goals. She's been an avid member of the ACLU and a donor to the Salvation Army. As well as, dedicate time to raising awareness of multiple sclerosis via The National Multiple Sclerosis Society and Parkinson's diseases via The Parkinson's Foundation.

Shelby has familial ties that keep her grounded in serving and motivates her to serve. As a native resident of Prince George's County, she is committed to working with an organization that allows her to give back to the aging population in her community. She understands the nuances in providing senior care and is deeply involved in providing support to those who are aging in place.

Fellowship Square

2026 New Corporate Member Biographies

Mike Kitchen, IMEG

Michael S. Kitchen, P.E. is a client executive with IMEG, a national full-service engineering firm with multiple offices in the Washington DC region. Mike has been providing civil engineering and entitlement services on projects throughout the region for over 40 years and has been with IMEG since 1997. Mike recently completed two six-year terms on the board for Habitat for Humanity Prince William County. He also serves on the boards and is actively involved in several development-oriented organizations in the region, including the Southeast Fairfax Development Corporation (SFDC), the Northern Virginia Building Industry Association (NVBIA) and NAIOP. Mike is a lifelong resident of Northern Virginia and graduated from Virginia Tech in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering. He currently lives in Bristow with his wife Kelli and two children.

Lenette O'Brien, The Power of Transition, LLC

Lenette retired from a 20-year career in the Federal Government and then worked for over 10 years in the public-school system. She also contributed to the Washington Nationals Youth Baseball Academy helping underprivileged youth through sports and education nurture personal growth and academic achievement. Presently, as a Psychiatric Rehabilitation Coordinator (PRC), she provides mental health services to people of all ages, helping them achieve life skills and goals to become productive members of society.

During her tenure as a PRC over the last 8 years, Lenette developed a profound understanding of the complexities of human behavior and the societal influences impacting mental health. This experience has been instrumental in shaping her approach towards psychiatric rehabilitation and remains a cornerstone of her career philosophy.

Lenette is eager to gain a deeper understanding of the housing benefits available while simultaneously providing wellness education focused on nutrition, mental health, and physical well-being to the residents. Her goal is to bridge the gap between the underserved community and the expectations of Largo Landing. She is committed to exploring innovative ways to enhance Largo Landing's outreach and overall well-being initiatives by leveraging her network of centers of influence, including therapists, psychiatrists, and business owners.